

Receiving and distribution options with end-to-end tracking and smart delivery

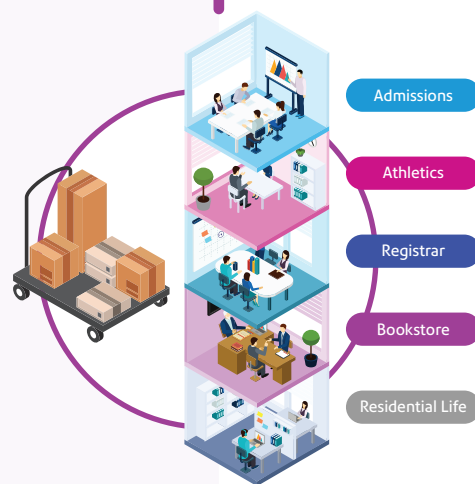

Campuses everywhere are experiencing higher than normal package volumes. Pitney Bowes can help streamline mail center processes with our receiving, tracking and smart locker solutions.

Incoming packages are received into PitneyTrack® Inbound with a simple scan of a the package barcode.

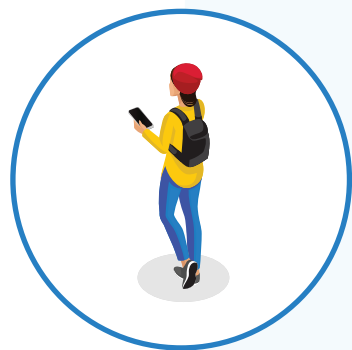

Student package journey

Faculty/staff package journey

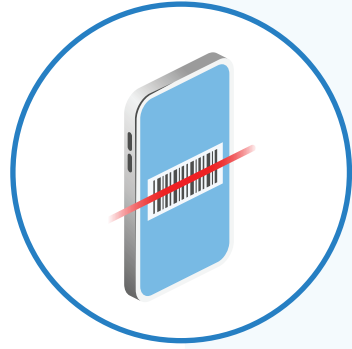

01. Received packages are assigned to a Smart Locker compartment

01. Packages are delivered to faculty and staff to their respective departments or buildings.

02. Recipient is automatically notified via email or text with bar codes or PIN that packages are ready for pick-up.

02. Faculty and staff sign for packages on handheld tracking device or mobile app.

03. Student securely scans barcode to open locker door and picks up packages at their convenience.

03. Signature confirmations, photos and delivery events are synced to the platform.

04. Delivery signatures and photo of recipient and transactions are recorded. Locker compartment are marked available.

For more information, visit us online: pb.com/campus-lockers